A Crowd Pleaser . . .

Edgar Guest in his poem "Myself" states aptly what the editors of the 1975 Chieftain are trying to express.

> I can never hide myself from me,
> I see that others may never see,
> I know what others may never know,
> I never can fool myself and so,
> Whatever happens, I want to be
> Self-respecting and conscience free.

Every individual in this world as well as desiring to be "self-respecting and conscience free" is unique in some way. It may be something as simple as a pleasant smile or as great as the talents for learning, for the arts, for building, for athletics, for homemaking, for being a gentle human being. Each characteristic makes the individual a special person in his own way.

If each of us can be ourself, establish our own identity, and at the same time give of ourself to the peoples in our everyday lives, we will add to our own stature. We, as individuals, will benefit from giving and the world will benefit from the gift.

SPORTS

Together we fight
Not in vengeance
But toward a victory
That as a team
We celebrate
And share ....
Our efforts combined
We are no longer separate
We have become one individual
Working for ana toward
A single cause —
And in the end
Whether we win or
Whether we lose;
Weary, we carry our bodies
Jubilant, we carry our hearts
Power and youth in our realm
We smile
Ready to face new struggles ahead

The school year-1974-75-has been a year of great change at King Philip. We have been and are undergoing change in the school structure and change in administration.

During this time of change, most of us have tried to maintain our own identities while giving the best of ourselves to make it all go together. Those of us who gave the best of ourselves have and will benefit and add to our stature, for we have learned to work and to play under pressure.

We, the Editors of the 1975 Chieftain, hope that we have, within the pages of this edition, reflected some of our successes and our struggles.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged in a wood and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Now the future is what you will make it.
Which way to go?
What job to seek?
Where is the yellow brick road?
One company represents so many different avenues there may be a job opportunity that just fits your particular talents. More important, a job that leads to a better job. Ask your
